A NOTE FROM THE BARON AND BARONESS

The nights are becoming longer and the air colder. Soon snow will be upon us. Please keep an eye on the Facebook page and Google group as well as the webpage for opportunities to gather with your fellow friends of the barony. There are many projects in the works for the barony. Will you please help?

Many will be meeting at THL Kriemhild's home December 5, 2015 to make Baronial tabards for our heavy weapon fighters. Please join us even if you can't sew. There will be a potluck also, so bring a dish to pass. See the Facebook page for details or contact THL Kriemhild at chronicler@donnershafen.org.

Do you do wood working? The thrones need new simpler sides for traveling. We would like to have them by St. Val's Day in February or at least by Gulf Wars in March. Please contact Us if you have the skills and time to take on this task.

Lastly, a big thank you to all that worked so hard in making this year's Vikings Come Home such a success! It was one of the best yet!

Blessing to all this holiday season!

Baron Cedach and Baroness Meabh

This year most of the meal is taken care of except for these items:

Fruits, Vegetables/Salads, Desserts

This site is very discreetly wet.

Subtlety Challenge!

“First of all what is a subtlety? A subtlety is a special dish. It is often a charade – something that looks like something else... something that is designed to delight the observer... sometimes something that is not even intended to be eaten.”

(taken from “Simple Subtleties to Spice up a Medieval Feast” found online)

Create a flower bouquet of vegetables, a rice crispie treat castle or a gingerbread longhall. Sorry, no prizes just word fame. Extra word fame if it's in the shape of a swan!

The gift exchange should be no more than $15. It should be wrapped and pertaining to the SCA. It can be something you made, books/videos, material, jewelry, mead, etc.

Schedule:	Noon	Site opens for gaming, socializing, dancing and lunch
	3:00	January Business Meeting
	4:30	Baronial Court
	5:30	Dinner
	6:30	Gift Exchange

Times may change as needed.
