A NOTE FROM THE BARON AND BARONESS

We know that summer is upon us and busy times are ahead, but we ask that you all take time to go online and recommend people of the Barony for awards. Their Royal Majesties will be attending Vikings Come Home and this is a great opportunity to have our populace be recognized for the great group of people they are. These recommendations need to be done soon so that there is time for scrolls to be made. If you have any questions as to how or where to go, please feel free to contact us or the herald.

Speaking of Vikings Come Home, volunteers are still needed. Please contact the autocrats and tell them where you can lend a hand. We anticipate a nice attendance and want to be sure everyone has a grand time.

We look forward to seeing you all this summer!

Baron Cedach and Baroness Meabh
